I was a bit surprised by "Frederick Taylor found God." (You made me look! :smile I think Frederick Taylor himself was a surpassingly mean-spirited man. He said very derogatory things about the laborers who were part of his management studies - how they were stupid, how intelligence in the workforce was a dangerous and undesirable thing, how workers should be paid the least possible wage, etc.

When it comes to the possibility of God's existence, the Bible says that there are people who have seen sufficient evidence, but they have suppressed the truth about God. 1 On the other hand, for those who want to know God if he is there, he says, "You will seek me and find me; when you seek me with all your heart, I will be found by you."
